

Sixty-nine Prophecies Still to be Fulfilled

Before the Second Coming of the LORD

Part 2 – You Are Here “X” Marks the Spot

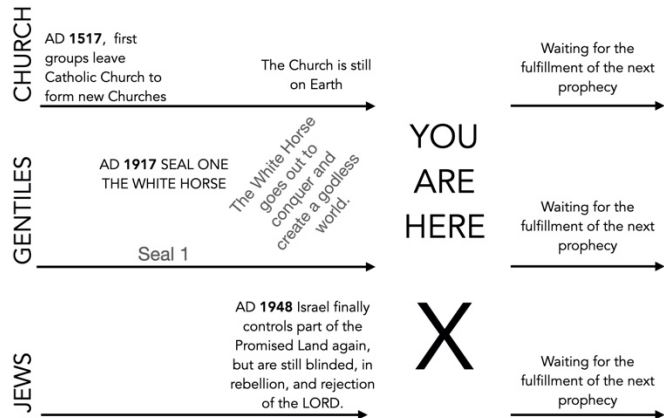

With the doors of the seven Churches of the Revelation closed, “the things which are,” according to the LORD – are no more. Prophecies can continue to be fulfilled. In chapter 4 of the Revelation, we find this statement.

“After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven, and the first voice which I had heard, like the sound of a trumpet speaking with me, said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things.”

(Revelation 4:1)

Notice in the Gentile line the inclusion of Seal 1 having been completed. For this, a short review of biblical and world history is needed.

In Revelation Chapter 4, John describes the glories of what he is seeing in heaven. In Chapter 5, John describes the book that he sees which has seven seals. In Chapter 6, John describes what happens when the LORD opens each seal. This brings us to Seal One. John describes what he saw with the breaking of this seal.

*“Then I saw when the Lamb broke one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, “Come.””² I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow;
and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.”*

(Revelation 6:1-2)

The white horse which goes out to conquer has a bow, but he does not have arrows - he does not have deadly ammunition. He goes out simply to conquer the world, not by war but by influence. Influence is a way to change the thinking of people. In America, various politicians have risen in the ranks and people call them White Horse Saviors who can turn a government or a direction in society around if put in a position of power. Ronald Reagan was just such a person. This passage in the Revelation is the origin of that term.

Back in the 1600s, the idea of democratic socialism began to resurge. It was a philosophy of government and society that showed its ugly head at the Tower of Babel event after the flood (Gen. 11). The Lord brought that to an end quickly. In the 1600s it controlled Germany and France and it was even imported to the Americas. William Bradford embraced the concept with his group in the Plymouth colony in America. Under Bradford, everyone owned everything, and everybody was sharing everything. It was to be America’s model. It lasted less than 18 months. William Bradford basically said, “this is not going to work because you have a few who work but most want a handout.” He abandoned the democratic socialism concept.

The French Revolution of 1789-1799, was all about changing the government into a democratic, socialistic society of socialism – state common ownership. Karl Marx was a proponent of the philosophy and in 1848 wrote a pamphlet titled “The Communist Manifesto.” The word “Communist” comes from the word “Common” meaning publicly owned and free and the suffix “-ist” which means one who does or makes. The word was first coined by John Goodwin Barmby who lived from 1820 -1881. The word was picked up by Carl Marx and used in his Communist Manifesto. The manifesto denied the existence of God. Carl Marx’s books still have influence in the world to this day, but he was not the White Horse Rider because he did not have a crown. Marx drafted the documents, but a king-like figure was needed to implement them.

World War I came in 1914 and Russia became an ally with America in fighting the Germans.

In 1917, Nicholas II was the ruler of Russia, the king of the north. Although he caused great trouble for the Church in Russia, he believed in God and the Church was open to everyone. That year, his family was captured and killed in the Russian Revolution. A Provisional Socialist Government was established with disagreeing parties. About four months later, Vladimir Lenin rose in the ranks and took charge of Russia and was crowned the leader of the USSR (Union of Soviet Socialist Republics). His 1918 decree was to nationalize the ownership of all land owned by all people and all property of the Orthodox Church. He installed Communism in Russia. From there Lenin followed Marx’s outline. The Church in Russia was outlawed. His decree deprived the church of its status of legal personhood, the right to own property, or to teach religion in both state and private schools or to any group of minors. God did not exist in Lenin’s world. But, just seven years later, Lenin was dead, but the damage was done. Russia was Marxist to the bone. Russia was a godless country. Christians lived in fear. In 1994, a man named of Volkogonov claimed that “there can scarcely have been another man in history who managed so profoundly to change so large a society on such a scale.”

(Volkogonov, Dmitri (1994). Lenin: Life and Legacy. Translated by Shukman, Harold. London: HarperCollins).

Because Russia and France were allies of America in WWI, Russian, French, as well as German immigrants began to come to America and they brought along their Marxist /Communist beliefs. They also moved into England also where the “God is Dead,” movement (German origin 1882 – Friedrich Nietzsche) emerged in the colleges and universities. It, too, would be imported into America.

By the time the last Church of the Revelation closed its doors in 1922, Lenin had fully established his intent to change the world. He died in 1924. Ten years later, in 1933, a group of American ministers from the Unity Church, the Unitarian Church, and the Universalist Church, influenced by Lenin’s push, wrote the Humanist Manifesto in America with the intent of changing America into a Marxist/Communist - godless society as Lenin did in Russia. Their plan did not immediately gain acceptance. They saw the philosophy’s success in the England colleges and they came to the conclusion that the only way to accomplish their goal in America was to take their plan out of the pulpits and place it in the institutes of higher learning - the colleges and universities. By 1973, they had infiltrated the institutions strongly and the foundation was well established to accomplish their goals. In 1973, the Humanist Manifesto II was written. This time the majority of the signers were Marxist professors. The men knew that if they could take the universities and colleges, soon the graduating students would filter their philosophy down through the educational system to the preschool classrooms and eventually back to the boardrooms, the workplace, the pulpits, the pews, and on to every country, tongue, and village in the world. It worked. Like the frogs that jumped into the pot of cool water which had just been placed on the fire, the frogs did not realize the rising heat would boil them to death. In short, the White Horse Rider had ridden in the name of Vladimir Lenin who started it all with his crown and bow – no more God. He did it without ammunition. He did it with law. Seal One was opened by a king and set on its path to conquer the world with a godless philosophy. It has changed the thinking in all societies except those controlled by Islam - the great apostasy. Yet, when you look at Islam, the traits and social structures are the same as communism/socialism.

I want to challenge each of you to read the 1933 Humanist Manifest I and the 1973 Humanist Manifest II.

The link to the 1973 Manifesto is <https://americanhumanist.org/what-is-humanism/manifesto2/>

Once you read these documents, you will immediately understand why America is where it is today – it was planned.

Now we continue with the

THE SIXTY-NINE PROPHECIES THAT MUST BE FULFILLED BEFORE THE SECOND COMING OF THE LORD

Prophecy 1 [Gentile] The ten toes of Nebuchadnezzar's dream must become a united empire to fulfill the prophecy. Those toes are Britain (without Scotland and Ireland), France, Spain (with Portugal as one country), Italy, North Africa (modern Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, and Libya must unite as one country), Greece, Macedonia (modern Macedonia along with Bulgaria, Albania, Serbia, Kosovo united as one country), Turkey, Syria, and Egypt. (Dan. 2; 7; 8)

To fulfilled Nebuchadnezzar's dream, during the formation of the ten toes into one empire, three of the kings will reject the union and will be killed. No one will be installed as a king in their place. Therefore, the new empire will have seven vice kings serving under a new supreme king who was not part of the original ten (Dan. 7). Daniel describes this evil empire as a seven-headed beast with ten horns and a little horn. (Seven vice-presidents, ten countries, and one supreme president whom himself is called a beast.) Note, the empire is called a beast, and the supreme leader is called a beast in the Revelation.

Prophecy 2 [Gentile] Colonies of humans must begin living among the stars and under the surface of the oceans in permanent homes with an emphasis on permanent homes. (Oba. 4:4; Amo. 9:2-3) This prophecy is quickly moving towards fulfillment. It is not there as yet, but it will be soon.

Prophecy 3 [Gentile] This new empire will be led by one president and seven vice-presidents and a Muslim false prophet to guide the spiritual aspect of the empire (Dan. 7; Rev. 13:11-12).

Prophecy 4 [Gentile] Seal 2 - The Red Horse goes out to take peace from the world. (Rev. 6:3-4) Many theologians see this to be a war because of the mention of a "great sword" used to slay others. I once agreed. However, in light of the recent Covid phenomenon, I must ask, "What could that great sword actually be?" In the Scripture, the "Sword of the LORD" is His Word, not a real sword. John made that clear in Revelation Chapter 1 when he describes the sword coming from the mouth of the LORD. Therefore, could the sword in this seal not be a sword but something like an injection that would cause sterility, birth defects, and body system failures? After all, the Covid virus started its spread from Red China. It does not matter what nation developed it. Is it the Red Horse? It has been one hundred years since the demise of the last Church of the Revelation. It has been one hundred years since the onslaught of the successful attempt to create a godless world. This bug has definitely taken peace from the world and will continue with side effect heartaches. In addition, many have died from the treatments used to cure this bug. Time will tell how this bug has affected life and death as well as all the side effects associated with it. We will have to wait for the history to be written to understand if this bug from Red China is Seal Two and the Red Horse Rider. It may be.

Prophecy 5 [Gentile] Seal 3 - The Black Horse goes out to bring poverty to the world. (Rev. 6:5-6) World history will tell us the identity of this rider after he has begun his ride. We cannot yet speculate on his origin. One thing is for sure, the effects of his ride will not be immediately known. It will take time like Seal 1 and 2.

Prophecy 6 [Gentile] Seal 4 - The Green Horse goes out to bring massive death in the world. (Rev. 6:5-6) We cannot yet speculate his origin; however, when he rides, one-fourth of the population of the world will die from weapons, famine, pestilence, and wild beasts. The estimated population of the world today is 7.6 billion. One-fourth would mean the deaths of 1.9 billion people to fulfill this prophecy. Again, we will have to wait for history to record this rider.

Prophecy 7 [Gentile] Seal 5 - From under the Altar, many souls cry out in heaven, "How long?" (Rev. 6:9-11) This prophecy will be fulfilled in heaven after Seal 4. It will take time for one-fourth of the earth to die in Seal 4. Seal 5 is the cry for the end of Seal 4 to come quickly. But it will not come quickly.

Prophecy 8 [Gentile] Seal 6 - The earthquake and demonic angels fall to earth (Rev. 6:12-17). Satan will no longer have access to heaven and the throne of God. This seal will be fulfilled after Seal 4 is completed on earth and the question found in Seal 5 has been asked in heaven. Satan will no longer be at the throne to make accusations as to why a Christian should not be allowed in heaven.

Prophecy 9 [Jews] Part of Seal 6 – The Sealing of the 144,000 Jews here on earth. (Rev. 7:1-8) They are protected by the LORD from all harm that is come upon all humanity in the tribulation about to begin.

Prophecy 10 [Church] Part of Seal 6 – The Rapture of the Church - (Rev. 7:9-17) John turns his head from looking at the sealing of the 144,000 on earth to seeing the arrival of a multitude dressed in white robes, with palm branches and praise for their salvation in heaven – the Church. These are the people of earth rescued from the coming tribulation (Dan. 12:1; Matt. 24:21; Mar. 13:9). These are not martyrs of the Tribulation; it has not started yet. They were rescued "out of the great tribulation" meaning they would not go through the great tribulation or any part of it. How do we know this? For the saints, they will be raptured. Because they are raptured, they will not stand before the judgment seat of God where Satan is the accuser because Satan is no longer there to accuse. They will go directly to the marriage chamber with the LORD. Listen to what the LORD tells Daniel about this.

"Now at that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise. And there will be a time of distress such as never occurred since there was a nation until that time; and at that time your people, everyone who is found written in the book, will be rescued. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the ground will awake, these to everlasting life, but the others to disgrace and everlasting contempt." (Dan. 12:1-2)

When the bodies asleep in the dust awake to everlasting life, that is the rapture. When the bodies asleep in the dust awake to everlasting contempt, that is the Great White Throne Judgment. Daniel's entry is a summary of three things to come - the rapture (the resurrection of the saved saints to life), the coming Tribulation of Israel, and the resurrection of the lost sinners to eternal death. When Seal 7 is broken – heaven becomes silent. What does that mean?
